

Kobe College Corporation- Japan Education Exchange

2010 HIGH SCHOOL ESSAY CONTEST

sponsored by
KCC-JEE and OMRON Foundation

RULES: Write an essay in English of 500 words or less about your experience studying Japanese and how the study of Japanese language and culture fits into your plans for the future. Essays will be judged on content, grammar, and style.

PRIZE: One winner will be selected to study Japanese at the Kyoto Japanese Language School from July 12-August 6, 2010. The prize includes airfare, language school, and accommodations with a homestay family.

ELIGIBILITY: The contest is open to any United States high school student who will be 16 years old or older by July 1, 2010 and has studied Japanese in an accredited high school program for at least one year. The winner must obtain/hold a valid U.S. passport.

DEADLINE: February 15, 2010

KCC-JEE is a non-profit organization that has been providing educational and cross-cultural opportunities to people in Japan and the United States since 1920. For more information, call (847) 715-9859.